

Firm Profile

Renne Sloan Holtzman Sakai LLP (Public Law Group®) was founded to serve large and small public agencies, nonprofits and community-based organizations, and private entities throughout California. The Public Law Group® combines the knowledge of legal practitioners with the practical experience of human resources professionals. The firm is built on the successful outside-the-box approach developed by our Chair, former San Francisco City Attorney Louise Renne.

Renne Sloan Holtzman Sakai LLP provides a wide range of practice specialties for its clients, including:

- ADA Facilities Compliance
- Administrative Hearings & Arbitration
- Appeals & Writs
- Civil Rights Litigation
- Constitutional Law
- Elections
- Employment Law & Litigation
- Government Ethics
- Labor Relations & Labor Law
- Land Use and CEQA
- Public Agency General and Special Counsel
- Public Interest Litigation
- Training
- Workplace Investigations

Renne Sloan Holtzman Sakai attorneys and consultants have a unique depth and breadth of experience and have served public agencies in the following capacities:

- San Francisco City Attorney, Chief Deputy City Attorney, and Deputy City Attorneys
- Richmond City Attorney and Chief Deputy City Attorney
- Sunnyvale City Attorney
- General Counsel to PERB and Counsel to PERB members
- General Counsel for the San Francisco Unified School District
- Chief Counsel for California Secretary of State
- Directors of Personnel, Human Resources, and Labor Relations
- Assistant Attorneys General

Some of our clients include:

- Cities & Counties
- School Districts
- State Agencies
- Universities
- Special Districts
- Community College Districts
- Nonprofit Organizations